

Potso Lejapela

Akasia, Pretoria

0767386069 | Plejapela6069@gmail.com

Objective

Final-year BSc Applied Information Technology student with strong skills in programming, debugging, and software problem-solving. Experienced Student Assistant involved in marking programming assignments and supporting students with technical coding issues. Strong interest in Artificial Intelligence, machine learning concepts, and software development. Seeking an internship opportunity to apply technical skills in a real-world AI-focused environment.

Experience

- North West University Jul 2025 - Present
Student Assistant
Work with the instructor and fellow assistants to troubleshoot and resolve coding problems.
Assist with hands on programming activities, including identifying bugs and testing C# applications.
Evaluate code and deliver helpful feedback to support learning and code improvement.

Education

- North West University Feb 2023 - Nov 2026
Bsc In Information Technology
Undergraduate Student(Final year)
- Makhosini Combined Secondary School Jan 2019 - Nov 2021
Mathematics and Science
Matric

Skills

- C#
- Java fundamentals
- Python
- C++
- HTML, CSS
- Microsoft Excel and Analytical skills
- Excellent communication and problem-solving skills
- Basic SQL
- Data Structures and Algorithms

Projects

- ePolice Management System
Developed a web-based ePolice Management System to manage police records, including case management, offender tracking, and administrative reporting through a browser-based interface.

Languages

- Sepedi: write, read and speak (proficient)
- English: write , read and speak (proficient)

Personal Details

- Nationality : South African
- Gender : Male

Reference

- Available upon request